NEWS / WHAT'S ON: FOR ALL TEAM CHURCHES

24/7 Prayer: By now, you should hopefully have heard the story of the old Dolphin pub on Sutton High Street, which God has provided as a space for people in our area to pray. The 12th - 19th September will see The Dolphin hold its very first full week of 24/7 prayer - and we'd love for you to be involved. Our first 24/7 prayer week begins on 12th September at 8am and finishes on 19th September at 8am. We would love it if you would choose a slot to pray in the Dolphin during this period. The Prayer Room at The Dolphin is all set up; accessible 24 hours a day; and ready for you to book your slot (or slots!). You can book any time - from half an hour before work to half a day for you and a group. All the information you'll need, including how to book and the address of The Dolphin is on the website, or speak to Dave Banks dave.banks@gmx.at or call Wendy Sullivan at Sutton Vineyard

Join us for an evening event: Sharing Stories of Prayer
On Thursday 13th September at 7pm we've got an evening at The Dolphin with Jill Weber (Houses of Prayer coordinator, 24/7 prayer), and Carla Harding (UK Director, 24/7 Prayer). Jill and Carla will be telling stories from the 24/7 Prayer movement, followed by time for a Q&A and a chance for us to share stories of prayer in Sutton and the surrounds. There's no entry fee, but there are limited spaces so please do sign up.
