NOTICES AND WHAT'S ON

Visit of Rona Forzani from Street Pastors to our 10.30am service - We are delighted that Rona, a founder member of Street Pastors in Sutton, will be giving us an update during our Sunday morning service (this will replace the sermon). She will be staying on after the service to answer questions over coffee.
Street Pastors is one of the initiatives of Sutton Community Works, a partnership of churches which works closely with the civic authorities, of which St Nicholas is a part. St Nicholas is the base from which Street Pastors work, ministering to those in need of help on Fridays and Saturdays. Two members of St Nicholas Congregation are Street Pastors, but new recruits are always welcome.

Good news. Revd Pam Searle will be the next full time Minister at Sutton Baptist Church and it is hoped that she can be formally inducted before the 150th anniversary celebrations. Sutton Baptist say they will confirm the details asap, but in the meantime they wish to share the good news with friends at CUCS (Churches Uniting in Central Sutton).

Kitchen Social at Sutton Central Library

700,000 LONDON CHILDREN STRUGGLE FOR FOOD DURING THE SCHOOL HOLIDAYS

Kitchen Social was launched this February half-term at Sutton Central Library. With the assistance of their partners, Sutton Cultural Services will be providing a free meal and cultural activity to children 0-11 years old during each school holiday.

"For children from low-income backgrounds, the school holidays can be a difficult time. With no free school meals or teacher support, hunger and social isolation are a reality for many young Londoners. Teachers report malnourished children returning to school after the holidays having fallen behind compared to their peers. Many young people will never claw back this learning and health disadvantage to fulfil their potential." Mayor's Fund for London.

If you're a family, individual, organisation, group or department and you would like to assist with this project or know of someone who would benefit please contact us on the details below.
