CAN YOU HELP

We are all grateful to all those who help out on Sundays in so many ways. But we could do with more help, especially with the refreshments after the service, readings and being Sidespeople. The more who can help, the less frequently all are asked to assist. If you feel you can help in any way, please have a word with Gill Ayres or Richard West. Many thanks.DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

Remembrance Sunday 10 November 2024 6.30pm Trinity Church Sutton	 The Trinity Remembrance Sunday evening service will include a performance of The Armed Man by Trinity Festival Choir with an instrumental ensemble. Sir Karl Jenkins' ever-popular The Armed Man was commissioned by the Royal Armouries to mark the millennium in 2000. It reflects on the passing of 'the most war- torn and destructive century in human history' and looks forward in hope to a more peaceful future. Musically, it draws on a range of compositional styles, from Renaissance counterpoint to Romantic and 'heart on sleeve' melodic invention, including a beautiful cello solo in the 'Benedictus'. All are welcome, there is no charge. There will be a retiring collection. Webpage www.trinitychurchsutton.org.uk/choral

Sunday 1 December 12.30pm following morning service	CUCS Outing Meet at the back of Trinity church after morning service with your packed lunch.We plan to have a picnic in the halls before we leave, and then travel by car or train to the home of John and Deborah Wroe before walking to Little Holland House, the former home of artist, designer and craftsman Frank Dickinson (1874-1961). A unique interpretation of the English arts and crafts movement, the Grade II* interior was created entirely by Dickinson, inspired by the ideals of John Ruskin and William Morris and contains Dickinson's paintings, hand-made furniture, furnishings, metalwork and carving, in a unique fusion of Art Nouveau and the English Arts and Crafts style. With very limited finances Dickinson designed and built the house himself between 1902-04. After our visit we will return for an Edwardian tea with parlour games at John and Deborah's home. Please let John and Deborah Wroe (john.p.wroe@gmail.com) know if you plan to come, and whether you will need, or can offer, a lift.
