CAN YOU HELP

We are all grateful to all those who help out on Sundays in so many ways. But we could do with more help, especially with the refreshments after the service, readings and being Sidespeople. The more who can help, the less frequently all are asked to assist. If you feel you can help in any way, please have a word with Gill Ayres or Richard West. Many thanks.

Friday 22 November 7pm	SUPPER TALK - Memories from Tanzania Revd Beth Lewis speaks of the years she lived and worked in rural Tanzania. Beth Lewis is currently Vicar of Belmont, and Team Vicar in the Parish of Cheam. In Tanzania she was Head of Education for the Diocese of Kondoa and Regional Youth Coordinator for the Anglican Church of Tanzania. Her main task was to increase education provision and enrollment in rural villages, and enable young people to explore their vocational opportunities. Please note that Sunday, 17 November is the final opportunity to buy tickets for the Supper Talk - available from Tricia Squires.

Sunday 1 December 12.30pm following morning service	CUCS Outing Meet at the back of Trinity church after morning service with your packed lunch.We plan to have a picnic in the halls before we leave, and then travel by car or train to the home of John and Deborah Wroe before walking to Little Holland House, the former home of artist, designer and craftsman Frank Dickinson (1874-1961). A unique interpretation of the English arts and crafts movement, the Grade II* interior was created entirely by Dickinson, inspired by the ideals of John Ruskin and William Morris and contains Dickinson's paintings, hand-made furniture, furnishings, metalwork and carving, in a unique fusion of Art Nouveau and the English Arts and Crafts style. With very limited finances Dickinson designed and built the house himself between 1902-04. After our visit we will return for an Edwardian tea with parlour games at John and Deborah's home. Please let John and Deborah Wroe (john.p.wroe@gmail.com) know if you plan to come, and whether you will need, or can offer, a lift.
