Saturday 13 June Manor Park 12-2	Mothers' Union 150th Anniversary Celebration Picnic We hope as many of our members can come and bring with them friends, family, young and old – all ages welcome. The plan for the afternoon is to start with a prayer, reading and song. All those attending are asked to bring their own picnic and seating, rug or chairs. There will be a number of activities arranged for all ages, including a tin can ally, egg and spoon races, colouring and a play ground for young children close by. We would also like people to bring teddies for a teddy bear picnic. It is also a great way to get to know others from across the Area and Diocese. We also hope to celebrate the event with an anniversary cake and biscuits. For more information and if possible, to confirm attendance, please contact Rosemary Walsh on: rosemary.walsh@southwark.anglican.org

They are also accepting any spare jewellery you might have lying about, as well as plants for the plant stall. Thank you!
