Saturday 4 July	The Friends of St Nicholas Churchyard and Mothers' Union are holding their annual Fun Day in the churchyard on Saturday, 4 July. In preparation for this, they are collecting bottles for the tombola - anything from shampoo to champagne, as long as it is in an unopened bottle or jar. They are also accepting any spare jewellery you might have lying about, as well as plants for the plant stall. Thank you!

What we'll be doing: * Reinstating the planting bed, * Cutting back vegetation, especially along the alleyway, * Keeping the beautiful mural clear and visible, * Planting shrubs * General tidying to make the garden look spick and span. All tools and equipment will be provided. You may prefer to bring your own gardening gloves, and please wear sensible shoes or boots suitable for outdoor work. This is a great opportunity to spend time outdoors, meet others, and make a visible difference to a shared community space.
